

LEGUME

Situated in the northeast corner of the Shire, the small progressive community of Legume offers visitors hospitality and charm for which country villages are renowned. A centrally located Community Hall offers visitor facilities, tennis courts and a general store and post office are close by. Driving through rainforest to Urbenville and Woodenbong via Tooloom Lookout gives breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside. Take a break at Tooloom Falls (picnic facilities available) then continue through to White Swamp and the Acacia Plateau. Best known as one of Australia's finest producers of beef cattle, the rich red soil of Acacia Plateau produces some of the best potatoes and kiwi fruit in the country.

